

Helen Moran

Learning and Development Manager

Helen is a Human Resources professional with over 20 years' experience in supporting line managers and businesses in achieving commercial solutions to people issues.

An experienced facilitator, she has an extensive track record of coaching and developing people in both the public and private sectors and has successfully delivered learning on diversity and inclusion; performance management; disciplinary, capability and grievance; TUPE, and mental health and wellbeing. She provides consultancy to a number of organisations on projects such as change management, restructures, redundancy and business transfers.

Helen joined AdviserPlus in 2007 from Alliance and Leicester Commercial Bank where she held the role of HR Business Partner. She played an integral role in the delivery team which picked up the Excellence in People Management Award at the 2019 PPMA Awards, for a collaboration project with Bradford Council, and came highly commended in the Best Mental Health and Well Being Initiative.

Helen has broad sector experience having previously undertaken operational roles in the NHS, retail, banking, manufacturing and professional services, and is a Mental Health First Aid Instructor, accredited by Mental Health First Aid England.
