

Jay Churchill

Senior HR Consultant

Jay is a Human Resources professional who is CIPD level 7 qualified, with a Master's degree in Human Resource Management, and currently supports the CIPD on a voluntary basis as the Events Coordinator for the North West and Merseyside.

Jay joined AdviserPlus in 2016 having gained a wealth of experience working in a number of facets of HR across various sectors, including insurance, logistics and retail. During her time at AdviserPlus Jay has worked as the Senior Adviser for the Post Office and United Utilities, coaching and supporting the line manager population with an array of ER issues including; managing absence, disciplinary, grievance, and performance management.

Most recently she held the position as Client Relationship Manager supporting value add activity for various clients. Jay is an experienced facilitator with a track record of training and developing across a variety of ER topics. She is a qualified mental health first aider.

