

Be Disability Confident.

It makes great business sense.

Employing and supporting disabled people is the fair thing to do.

But it's also the smart thing to do.

It lets your organisation:

1. Access a wider pool of high-quality talent
2. Save money by reducing disability-related turnover
3. Reduce sickness absence – and its impact
4. Act with a fairness that boosts staff commitment and morale
5. Demonstrate your brand values to customers and partners

Disability Confident is the Government's flagship scheme to help more disabled people into work.

It's designed to help you improve your ability to recruit, develop and retain a more inclusive and diverse workforce – and it's already reached over 7,000 organisations across the UK.

To make your journey simple, Disability Confident is split into three levels.

| | |
|---|---|
| Level 1: Disability Confident Committed | Sign up to the Disability Confident commitments and identify at least one thing you'll do to make a difference for disabled people. |
| Level 2: Disability Confident Employer | Self-assess your ability to hire, keep and develop the right people for your business. |
| Level 3: Disability Confident Leader | Get your self-assessment independently validated and be seen as a champion in your local and business communities. |

Sign up today. It's fast, easy, and free.

Achieving Disability Confident Committed status is easy. Simply take ten minutes and sign up online.

You'll be awarded your Disability Confident Committed badge, and gain instant access to specialist information from Disability Confident Leader organisations on everything from workplace adjustments to mental health in the workplace, recruitment and retention.

Join us as a Disability Confident Leader – and spread the word.

When you're validated as a Disability Confident Leader, you'll be empowered to help other businesses on their journeys. Just like us.

So, if you want more information or advice on becoming Disability Confident, just get in touch.

Join a community of Disability Confident Leaders

I think the Disability Confident scheme is fantastic. Every employer should sign up to it in my opinion.

Amber Kelly, Engagement, Talent and Learning Director, Post Office

Win the talent that other organisations can't

18% of working age adults in the UK have a disability

Less than half of them are in employment

Minimise the costs of absence and turnover

73% of employers who made work-related adjustments for employees said it was easy to do so

About us

AdviserPlus is a Disability Confident Leader. We're also the UK's leading provider of managed HR advisory services.

To sign up

Contact Pat Ashworth, Director of Learning Solutions on 0844 327 2293.

